

I travel regularly between Southern California and Idaho. It has been very nice to not continually lose radio stations or receive weak stations from am or fm while traveling. The traffic and weather reports assist me in planning my route. Respectfully,

LOWELL THOMAS